

I'm not robot

Continue

Identifying tone and mood worksheet answers

In order to continue to enjoy our site, we ask you to confirm your identity as a person. Thank you very much for your cooperation. For each passage below, write the tone and mood of the passage. Then write down the contextual clues that mediate them. Each of the words below can be used to describe the author's tone. Read every word. Does the word have positive, negative or neutral connotations? Next to each word, write +, - or N. Read the poem. Then answer the questions. Choose a word from the box that best describes the tone of each passage. Not all words will be used. Suddenly it seemed to him that he might run in battle. He was forced to admit that he knew nothing about himself when it came to war. Read the poem. Then answer the questions. Use every word to define it. Read the assigned passages. Finish the table. Read these poems. Answer the questions. For each passage below, write the tone and mood of the passage. Then write down the contextual clues that mediate them. When the author compares the kings and queens of both countries who will soon be at war, what literary device does he use? Watch two movie clips. Look and record words or images that make you excel as a contribution to the tone of each movie. Each of the words below can be used to describe the author's tone. Read every word. Does the word have positive, negative or neutral connotations? Choose the word that best describes the tone of each passage. The passage below is from the Novel of the Hard Times by Charles Dickens. Read the passage. Then answer the questions. English (United Kingdom) English (United States) Español (Latinoamérica) Tone is the narrator's attitude to his subject. It's like the tone of a voice in that people use the same words to describe them. You could say, for example, that the narrator's tone is sarcastic if the narrator mocks the characters. Unlike the tone of the voice that listeners can derive from the sound, readers can only derive the narrator's tone from words. That is, readers need to pay special attention. The ability to perceive the tone of the narrator is a basic skill of reading, even if it requires critical thinking. The reader must understand the text, consider the narrator's sincerity and make a judgment. The reader has to decide whether the narrator is exaggerating, sulking or just playing. Here are some worksheets that give students practice with an identification tone. Each sheet has four poems. The speaker in each poem expresses a certain tone. Students must read poems, determine the tones of speakers and explain their answer using text. Although I have included the answer keys, please keep in mind that these are suggestions. Students' responses will vary. Tonal sheet 1 This sheet contains four poems, each with a different tone. Students in each poem will recognize the tone of the speaker and explain their answers using text. This will give students some great practice with tone. Suggested level for this text: Grade 4-8. Tone Sheet 2 Here is another tone sheet with four poems and eight problems. Students interpret the tone of the speaker and support their answers with text. Recommended reading level for this text: Grade 6-10. Tone Sheet 3 Here is another worksheet that helps students master the tone. Students read short poems. They then interpret the tone of the speaker and support their answers using textual evidence. Recommended reading level for this text: Grade 5-9. Tone sheet 4 This tone sheet is slightly more challenging than some other tonal sheets. Poems are a little more challenging, but students still have to interpret the tone of the speaker and support their answers. Recommended reading level for this text: Grade 5-9. Tonal sheet 1 – This sheet contains four poems, each with a different tone. Students in each poem will recognize the tone of the speaker and explain their answers using text. This will give students some great practice with tone. Recommended reading level for this text: Grade 4-8. Tone Sheet 1 RTF Tone Sheet 1 PDF Preview Tone Sheet 1 In your web browser Show Responses Tone Sheet 2 – Here is another tone sheet with four poems and eight problems. Students interpret the tone of the speaker and support their answers with text. Recommended reading level for this text: Grade 6-10. Tone Sheet 2 RTF Tone Sheet 2 PDF Preview Tone Sheet 2 In your web browser Show Responses Tone Sheet 3 – Yet another sheet that will help students master the tone. Read short poems. Interpret the tone of the speaker. Support your answer. Recommended reading level for this text: Grade 5-9. Tone Sheet 3 RTF Tone Sheet 3 PDF Preview Tone Sheet 3 In your web browser Show Responses Tone Sheet 4 – This sheet tone is slightly more challenging than the previous three. Poems are a little more challenging, but students still have to interpret the tone of the speaker and support their answers. Recommended reading level for this text: Grade 5-9. Tone Sheet 4 RTF Tone Sheet 4 PDF Preview Tone Sheet 4 In your web browser View replies Sometimes someone's tone says more than someone's words. Sheet Tone 5 - It takes practice to correctly interpret and describe the speaker tone. Here is another worksheet that gives students the practice of mastering this important skill. This sheet has four more poems with questions. Recommended reading level for this text: Grade 5-9. Tone Sheet 5 RTF Tone Sheet 5 PDF Preview Tone Sheet 5 In your web browser Show Answers Tone Lesson - This is an animated PowerPoint presentation about tone. It provides students with definitions, examples, and useful tips on how to interpret and describe the tone of a speaker. After the lesson there are five questions of practice activity. Tone Lesson | PowerPoint CCSS. ELA-LITERACY. CCRA. R.4 - Interpret words and phrases as they are used in text, including determining technical, connotative, and pictorial meanings, and analyze how a particular form of word choice is used or tone. Expand the view of all common basic state standards related to tone CCSS. ELA-LITERACY. RL.6.4 — Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in text, including pictorial and connotative meanings; analyse the impact of a particular word choice on meaning and tone. CCSS. ELA-LITERACY. RL.8.4 — Determining the meaning of words and phrases used in text, including pictorial and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of specific words of choice on meaning and tone, including how language evokes a sense of time and place as it sets a formal or informal tone. CCSS. ELA-LITERACY. RL.9-10.4 — Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in text, including pictorial and connotative meanings; analyze the cumulative impact of specific words of choice on meaning and tone (e.g. how language evokes a sense of time and place as it sets a formal or informal tone). CCSS. ELA-LITERACY. RL.11-12.4 – Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in the text, including pictorial and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of specific words of choice on meaning and tone, including words with multiple meanings or language that is particularly fresh, engaging, or beautiful. (It belongs to Shakespeare as well as other authors.) View the source of common basic lessons and unit plans that understand common basic status standards